Hi Bert

Just finished a meeting with Shire Contracting and Rak Bank. I am due to meet with them again on Monday now that they have all the information and understand the deal. Sire's sponsor here is Saheel al Makhtoum and will be at the Monday meeting.
I now am off to another meeting with Al Futaim group so will call later.
Regards XX

Good afternoon XX,

I know your weekend is coming up and therefore wanted to take the opportunity to check back on any further developments regarding our deal or whether I can provide any additional information that might help the progress.

XX, is meeting with XX in Germany today, one of the major leasing companies that have offered him 43 million - confirmed in writing as I could see for myself when we met in Munich last weekend. This XXX is a major German player - however, so far, they never were interested in the status of being a listed company at the Deutsche Boerse. That obviously has changed now, they want to do a reversed merger with XXXXX.

Dieter tells me clearly, that so far he still feels being bound by the contract that we have, but he also indicated he doesn't want to risk that my financing sources might not be able to close in the foreseeable future or maybe not even be able to come through at all, and by then other bidders have stepped away.

I think I interpret his statement correctly when I assume that the time for us to close the deal is very limited now. Please let me know if you have any news. I can also be reached on Skype under "bomyXX".

Best Regards
