

Greenwich Post (CT)

Greenwich Post (CT)

January 22, 2009

Police Watch

Section: News

Page: 7A

Estimated printed pages: 3

Article Text:

Police do not release the names of those 17 years old and younger because they are protected as juveniles or youthful offenders. The Post does not publish the names of those arrested in domestic violence incidents to protect the identities of the victims.

The following are this week's arrests:

APPEAR Roderick Boyd, 40, of 54 Sinoway Road, Cos Cob was arrested Jan. 9 and charged with second degree failure to appear. Police said Boyd turned himself in on an outstanding warrant after he allegedly failed to answer charges in court. He had been arrested on Feb. 16, 2006, and charged with driving while under suspension, not having insurance and failure to obey a traffic control signal. Boyd was released on a $500 cash bond and was due in court Jan. 16.

CHILD PORNOGRAPHY Larcenio Brown, 37, of Norwalk was arrested Jan. 10 and charged with three counts of first degree possession of child pornography. Brown was arrested as part of an unrelated investigation when police determined he had numerous images of child pornography on three computers. Brown was being held in lieu of a $10,000 cash bond and was due in court Jan. 20.

APPEAR Atigio Sierralta, 37, of Port Chester, N.Y. was arrested Jan. 12 and charged with second degree failure to appear. Police reportedly saw Sierralta traveling 50 mph in a posted 35 mph zone on West Putnam Avenue and when he was pulled over, officers discovered there was a warrant for his arrest. Sierralta had allegedly failed to appear in court to respond to an Aug. 17, 2001, arrest for traveling fast, misuse of plates, operating an unregistered motor vehicle and not having insurance. Sierralta was released on a $500 cash bond and was due in court Jan. 21.

BREACH OF PEACE A 17-year-old Riverside boy was arrested Jan. 13 and charged with breach of peace.