Subject: [~TWZ-120216]: Criminal Libel Suit - Content Abuse

Hello,

I am not really sure this qualifies as abuse but thought I should forward it along to you just in case.

=====

SteadFast Networks,

You have a website on your server at domain name: www.deepcapture.com [1]. The content on that site has named Olive Buck Revell - Former Associate Deputy Director of the FBI, Yank Barry - Gusi Peace Prize Winner, Nobel Prize nominee and business leader, Sergei Chemezov- Chairman of Komistat, Security and Arms Division of the Russian Federation and Vladimir Putin - Former President of the Russian Federation.

This article has associated them all with international crimes and ties to Bernie Madoff, arms dealing, Al-Qeada, Russian Mafia, and a host of other illegal activities. This content is entirely fictitious and meant to cause significant financial harm to all the parties named through a malicious strategy of character assassination.

These accusations, lies and mistruths are fabricated. These actions will have legal consequences along with criminal charges and a suit for damages in the millions.

The owners of DeepCatpure.com will be sued and Steadfast Networks will be a party to the suit for having served this content. There are criminal penalties for defamation. Every word and every defamatory accusation made will serve at separate instances for which there will be charges filed. Rest assured all parties will pay for each one in the form of monetary damages, but most importantly criminal jail time for each and every occurrence.

What this content has engaged in here is internationally recognized as Libel. By you serving these false and defamatory accusations in a public forum via a website, you are involuntarily a party having committed an act of Libel against all the individuals named in the website article.

Please suspend this website immediately or legal proceedings will begin.

Regards,

Rasvir Mustan
